

RPD's Camp Azure

Camp Azure is a brand new Recreation and Parks day camp for children with autism!

Camp Azure will accommodate 20 children on the autism spectrum, ages 6-11, in a camp within a camp, based at San Francisco Recreation and Parks' Silver Tree day camp. We are looking for a qualified candidate for Camp Azure Manager, who will be in charge of training and supervising staff (group leaders and one-on-one facilitators), creating curriculum, and coordinating with the Silver Tree camp manager, to determine which activities are appropriate for full inclusion and when alternate activities need to be planned based on the individual needs of the campers. The camp will begin on July 18, 2011 and will run for four weeks. We are looking for candidates who hold credentials in Special Education, Therapeutic or Adaptive Recreation, or Adaptive Physical Education, and have extensive experience working with children with autism, especially in a recreation or camp setting.
